Hello! I'm

Debasree Dey

the artist behind everything you see here.

✨ About Me

- I'm from: India
- I'm a Self-taught artist

Once a software engineer, I traded lines of code for layers of fabric, paper, and paint — and now I guide others in reconnecting with their creativity through soulful, intuitive mixed media art.

Each class I create, each free resource I share, is made with love and intention — to help you embrace the beauty of imperfection, play freely, and tell your own story through art.
